

List of common collocations with make

<https://englishintake.com>

Collocations	Example sentences
Make a decision	I left my job because I had to make a decision about my future.
Make a mistake	He made a mistake on his maths test.
Make a plan	Let's make a plan for the weekend.
Make an effort	You need to make an effort to improve your grades.
Make a wish	Close your eyes and make a wish.
Make a difference	Volunteering can make a big difference in your local community.
Make a phone call	Can you make a phone call to the customer service?
Make a promise	I made a promise to buy my son a new bicycle.
Make a suggestion	Can I make a suggestion about our next meeting?
Make an appointment	I need to make an appointment with my doctor.
Make a list	Can you make a list of the things we need to buy for the wedding, please?
Make a profit	The company hopes to make a profit this semester.
Make a complaint	I wasn't satisfied with their service. I'll make a complaint.
Make a bed	Every morning, she makes her bed neatly.
Make a speech	The president will make a speech tonight.
Make a friend	She quickly made friends at her new school.
Make a mess	The kids made a mess in the living room.
Make a call	I'll make a call to confirm the appointment.
Make an attempt	Many inmates made an attempt to escape the Ashfield Prison yesterday.
Make a discovery	Scientists made a significant discovery in the field of cosmology by detecting gravitational waves.
Make a cake	I'll make a delicious cake for your birthday.
Make a point	He made a good point during the debate.
Make an excuse	Don't make an excuse for being late!

Make money	How do people make money here?
Make jokes	John is a funny person. He likes to make jokes.
Make a request	You can make a request for a refund if you are not happy with their service.
Make a reservation	Can we make a reservation online?
Make a choice	It's time to make a choice about your career path.
Make a move	It's getting late. Let's make a move.
Make progress	Are you making any progress on your new project?
Make a deal	The two political parties made a deal to end the conflicts.
Make a scene	She made a scene at the restaurant yesterday.
Make an impression	He made a good impression on the girls at the club yesterday.
Make an apology	She made an apology for her mistake.
Make a contribution	He made a generous contribution to the local charity.
Make a start	At least we can make a start with what we have at the moment.
Make a living	How do you make a living?
Make an error	I made an error in my calculations.
Make an announcement	The principal will make an announcement at 10 AM.
Make a stop	The train will make a stop at the next station.
Make an appearance	Many celebrities made an appearance at the event.
Make a confession	The suspect made a confession to the police about his crime.
Make an offer	They made an offer on the house.
Make an impact	His speech made a huge impact on the audience.
Make a fuss	She always makes a fuss over small issues.
Make a sound	I woke up early this morning because a rooster made a really loud sound.

<https://englishintake.com>