

Elliptical constructions

Normal sentences	Elliptical constructions
She likes swimming, and I like swimming too.	She likes swimming, and I do too.
They arrived at 5, and they left at 7.	They arrived at 5 and left at 7.
He knew that I was angry.	He knew I was angry.
After I took a nap, I continued driving.	After a nap, I continued driving.
I run faster than my brother runs.	I run faster than my brother.
I have two red pens, and she has three red pens.	I have two red pens, and she has three.
A. Who broke the vase? B. Peter broke the vase.	A. Who broke the vase? B. Peter.
Someone called me, but I don't know who called me.	Someone called me, but I don't know who.
Are you coming?	Coming?