THE PAST PERFECT CONTINUOUS TENSE

Subject	Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative	Interrogative (–)
I	I had been working.	I had not been working.	Had I been working?	Had I not been working?
You	You had been working.	You had not been working.	Had you been working?	Had you not been working?
He/She/It	He had been working.	He had not been working.	Had he been working?	Had he not been working?
We	We had been working.	We had not been working.	Had we been working?	Had we not been working?
You (plural)	You had been working.	You had not been working.	Had you been working?	Had you not been working?
They	They had been working.	They had not been working.	Had they been working?	Had they not been working?